1. INTRODUCTION

The purpose of the 2015 CPVO Social Report is to highlight the turn-over, the work environment and the social aspects of the CPVO during the reporting year. It is also used to compare information from a qualitative and quantitative perspective.

2. THE CPVO

2.1. Mission

The Community Plant Variety Office (CPVO) is responsible for the management of the Community Plant Variety Rights System. This system provides protection with an intellectual property right for new plant varieties on European Union level. The system, based on the 1991 act of the UPOV Convention, became operational in 1995. The mission of the CPVO is to foster innovation in plant varieties by high quality processing of applications for Community plant variety rights at affordable costs while providing policy guidance and assistance in the exercise of these rights for the benefit of stakeholders.

2.2. Structure

The CPVO is managed by its President, who is nominated by the Council of the European Union. The President takes all necessary measures in order to produce a balanced budget for the Agency and to ensure its correct implementation in the framework of the powers conferred to him under the EU Regulations. He is assisted by a Vice President, to whom he has delegated some of his duties, and who ensures his replacement in case of impediment.

The CPVO is organized internally into three units (the Technical Unit, the Administration Unit and the Legal Unit) and support services dealing with human resources and public relations. A Quality Audit service was created in 2008 with the aim of verifying that technical examination offices meet the quality standards required for providing services to the CPVO in the area of testing compliance of candidate varieties with the distinctness, uniformity and stability (DUS) criteria. This service reports directly to the Administrative Council of the CPVO.

3. EMPLOYMENT

3.1. Staff members

By the end of 2015, 45 staff members were employed at the CPVO comprising of 10 officials and 35 temporary agents (of which 3 were standard part-time employments of 80% or 90%). The representation in function groups AD and AST was as illustrated below.

12 nationalities were present in the Office with a majority of French nationals.

The Office has a low turn-over and 69% of the staff has been working for more than 10 years.

3.2. Recruitment procedures organized in 2015

No recruitment procedures were launched during 2015.

3.3. Staff that joined the CPVO

Two interim agents were recruited during 2015 for a total period of 8 months, in order to cover for a replacement of maternity leave, and to cope with an increased workload in the Legal Unit.

3.4. Staff that left the CPVO

No staff member left in 2015. The number of staff has been stable the last 3 years with 45-46 staff members.

3.5. Career development reports

The ability of the CPVO to achieve its objectives depends on its staff members. Their skills and abilities in carrying out their responsibilities determine how successful the CPVO as a whole will be. Career development reports are a means of formally recognizing, evaluating and providing feedback on each staff member's performance and contribution as a member of a team.

The career development report is an important means of communication between management and staff, as well as to identify training needs, and a vital tool for career development. In this process, staff members have a continuing opportunity to inform management about how they feel about the work and identify professional goals and interests. Managers in turn convey their commitment to each staff member's career success by communicating information concerning the staff member's performance in relation to the CPVO's expectations and action needed to meet these expectations and to advance the staff member's career at the CPVO.

Career development reports provide a link between the CPVO's objectives and a staff member's performance and should also enhance accountability for results.

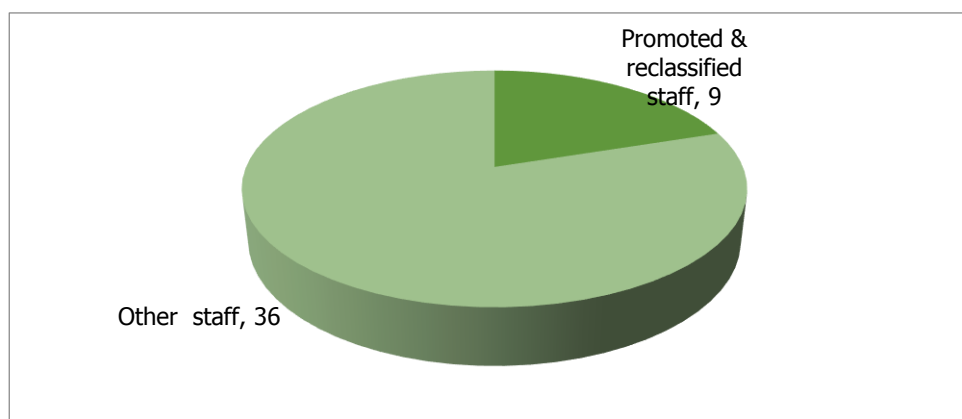

Career development reports are drawn up once a year for all staff members, including the President and Vice President.

3.6. Promotions and reclassifications

A total of 9 staff members were awarded a promotion or reclassification to the next grade in their career with retroactive effect from 01/01/2015. This represents 20% of the staff.

3.7. Absenteeism

The Staff Regulations of the European Communities, applicable to CPVO staff, stipulate that staff members do not have to present a medical certificate until the fourth day of absence. This absence of three consecutive days without a medical certificate can be repeated four times during a calendar year. All absences after that must be covered by a medical certificate. During 2015, no staff member of the CPVO was absent more than 12 days without a medical certificate.

The total number of days lost for medical reasons was 157,5 days. This represents 1.6% of the total working days during 2015 and makes an average of 3.5 days per post.

3.8. Gender and age balance

The gender balance amongst CPVO staff is 60-40, with the weight towards female staff. It should be noted that more than 70% of the staff of the CPVO is presently in the age range between 40 and 49. This situation should be monitored in the medium-long term period to ensure continuity and transfer of knowledge.

4. TRAINEES

In January 2009 the President of the CPVO adopted rules governing in-service training at the CPVO. The purpose of the in-service training with the CPVO is to give external people an opportunity to learn about the CPVO and its role within the European Union, to provide them with practical knowledge of the work at the CPVO, to enable them to acquire personal experience by means of the contacts made in the course of their work and put into practice the knowledge they have acquired during their studies or professional careers, to the benefit of the CPVO.

The CPVO adopted in 2013 a procedure for the traineeships within the Office, governed by the decision mentioned above. According to this procedure eventual traineeship's will be advertised in April and September (advertisements posted on the CPVO web page and message sent to the AC members). The traineeships are planned to begin at 2 intervals during the year, in March and September, and will last for 6 months at a time. This procedure was followed in 2014 and 8 advertisements were published as a consequence. Cooperation Agreements were also signed with the University of Alicante (Magister Lvcentinvs) and the University of Strasbourg (CEIPI) to offer the same traineeship possibilities of 6 months.

The CPVO also offers the possibility for younger students to do an internship of 2-4 months. These internships are not governed by the decision mentioned above but by a convention signed between the CPVO and the school.

In 2015 the CPVO had all in all seven trainees present for a total of 49 months.

5. WORKING CONDITIONS

5.1. Hours worked

The working week of the CPVO is 40 hours, spread out over the 5 working days (from Monday to Friday), respecting the following core working hours 9:00 to 12:30 and from 14:15 to 16:30 (16:00 on Wednesdays and Fridays).

5.2. Security and prevention of occupational hazards

The CPVO did not experience any accidents, occupational hazards or risks to its security during 2015. However, training courses are organized in these fields in order for the staff members to have knowledge about the actions to take in case anything happens. In 2015, 11 staff members participated in a training course on how to use a fire extinguisher. Due to the tragic terrorist attacks that occurred in France during 2015, the CPVO is considering increasing its' security for access to buildings.

5.3. Flexi-time and teleworking

The new implementing rules on working time gives staff members the possibility for flexi-time. This means that if staff works more than the regulatory hours during a month, they can work the corresponding time less in the following month. If the overtime worked exceeds 4 hours, staff can recuperate half a day in the following month, and if the overtime worked exceeds 8 hours they can recuperate a whole day, until a maximum of 2 days in a given month.

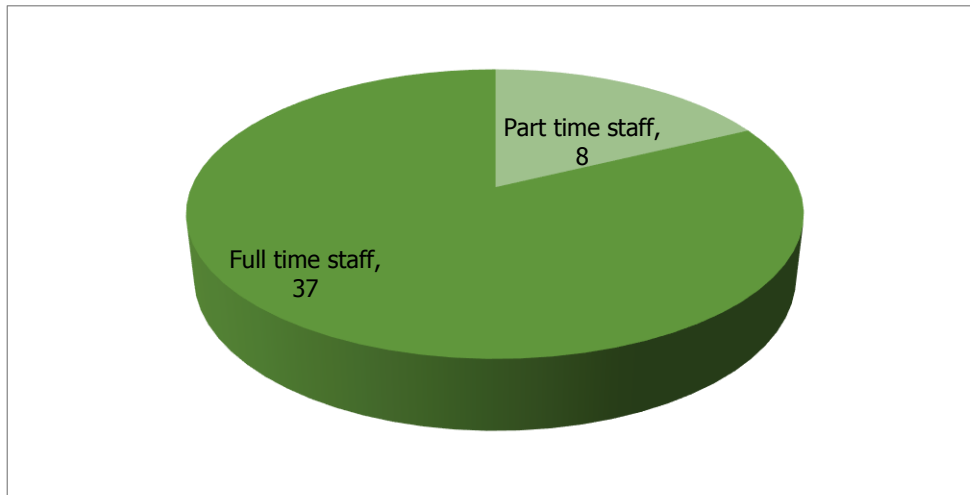

Several staff members have been teleworking during 2015, either on an ad hoc basis (4 staff members) or under a teleworking agreement (7 staff members). The feedback is very positive; both from the staff side and the CPVO's side.

5.4. Part time

The Staff Regulations of the European Communities give the right to staff members to work part-time. The CPVO adopted the Commission implementing rules on part-time work by analogy in April 2006, to give effect to these rules. These rules stipulate that staff members have the right to request to work part-time (50, 60, 70, 80 or 90%) under certain conditions. In 2015, eight staff members were granted the right to work part-time at 80% or 90% in order to take care of their young children and to better balance private and professional life. They did not all work part-time throughout the entire year.

5.5. Parental leave

Parental leave is also a right established in the Staff Regulations. In 2011, the CPVO adopted by analogy the new Commission implementing rules on parental leave. These rules stipulate that staff members have the right to request parental leave for up to six months per child until the child reaches the age of 12. The leave can be taken right after the maternity leave or at any other time. It can be taken all at once (six consecutive months) or be divided into a minimum period of one month at a time. Parental leave can be taken as full-time or half-time.

The New Staff Regulations has introduced a possibility to take an extra 6 months per child with an allowance reduced by 50%. In 2015, eleven staff members took parental leave for a total period of 11 months.

6. TRAINING

Training is an integral part of the human resources policy of the CPVO and it serves the interests of the individual as well as of the CPVO. Training should serve to improve individual competencies, professional effectiveness and commitment at the workplace so that each staff member can contribute optimally to the achievement of the CPVO's goals. By developing relevant knowledge, skills and attitudes, training should further help staff members to make desired career moves, both laterally (mobility) and vertically (promotion, including change of category). Learning is both a right and a duty for all persons working in the CPVO.

In 2015, a budget of 100 000 € was allocated for training. A total of 98 904,09 € was committed, which represents an execution level of 98.90 % of the budget.

A total of 317,25 days were spent in training, which gives an average of 7.07 days per post.

YEAR	TOTAL NUMBER OF DAYS	DAYS PER POST
2011	201.5	4.4
2012	337.5	7.3
2013	350	7.3
2014	376.5	8.4
2015	317.25	7.1

6.1. Language courses

In 2015, 17 staff members followed language courses. A total of 870 hours (=870/8=109 days) were spent in these courses, divided in English (260 hours), German (120 hours), Italian (60 hours), Spanish (2370 hours), French (133 hours) and Bulgarian (60 hours) language courses. 54 642,15 € was committed, which represents 54.64 % of the training budget.

6.2. IT Training

13 staff members followed IT training courses (EU Survey, Microsoft Office mini-sessions, Social media, Cloud Visio 2010), which amounted to a total of 168 hours (=21 days). In addition to this, 10 licenses to the Lynda.com online learning were bought for staff in order for them to follow trainings online. 7 819,11 € was committed, which represents 7.82% of the training budget.

6.3. Conflict resolution

All staff members were invited to take part in a training on conflict resolution. 43 staff members and 4 trainees took part in this training, which amounted to a total of 376 hours (=47 days). 7327,98 € was committed, which represents 7,33% of the training budget.

6.4. Other training

32 staff members followed other training courses (communication & management, human resources, technical expertise and diverse other courses) which amounted to a total of 1 124 hours (=140,5 days). 29 111,850 € was committed, which represents 29,11 % of the training budget.

7. PROFESSIONAL RELATIONS

7.1. Staff Committee

A new staff committee was elected in February 2015. Three full members and two alternates were appointed.

The role of the Staff Committee is to be a means of communication between the staff and the management of the Office. Once every other month, the Staff Committee and the management meet to discuss issues which have been brought forward by staff members, and which are deemed to be of concern for everybody. The Staff Committee seeks explanations and solutions to questions and problems experienced by staff members.

The Staff Committee also participates actively in the work of adopting internal staff related decisions of the CPVO. Its opinion and agreement is sought before adopting any such decision. The Staff Committee also plays a role in designating members of various internal committees of the Office.

Finally, the Staff Committee has a social role to play within the CPVO. It organizes a social day per year, which is the occasion for the staff members to meet outside the Office in an environment which changes from year to year (castles, museums, expeditions, etc.). The Staff Committee also organizes a Christmas party where the children and spouses of the staff members are invited. Apart from these main events, the staff committee also organizes a common coffee break once a month, which is a good occasion for staff to meet together. All these events help to create bonds between staff members and they are highly appreciated.

8. CONCLUSIONS

The CPVO has a good working climate with low absenteeism. Part-time possibilities are well taken up and allow a more flexible work organization and better reconciliation of work and family life. The new decision on working hours, with the possibility of flexi-time, and the decision on teleworking, offering the possibility to work from home, will also improve the balance between work and family life. The investment in training has increased in relation to previous years. This is an indication that staff members are eager to learn and that the CPVO encourages life-long learning.

The increase in the average age of staff, and the lack of mobility within the CPVO, are two aspects which will require the attention of management and possible actions in the near future.
